

The Day Randi Has Been Waiting For

Randi was sound asleep curled up in her bed when she heard her Mom calling from the end of the hall, "Randi, time to get up. You have a big day ahead of you!" Randi suddenly opened her eyes and sat up very quickly in her bed. She was a little confused as she shook her head trying to remember if today was really the day she had been waiting for. She asked herself, "Is it really the first day of ballet class?" Then Randi heard her Mom calling again, and this time she heard the words she so wanted to hear, "Randi, don't forget to put your new ballet clothes on today." Randi was so excited that she leaped three times around her room and then quickly put on her brand new leotard and tights. Once she was dressed, she opened her dance bag to make sure her beautiful new ballet slippers were still in their special place. They were right where she had left them. Randi galloped to the bathroom and brushed her teeth. While she was brushing her teeth, she decided to stand in passé because that is what she had seen her older sister do. She picked up her brand-new ballet bun kit, threw her dance bag over her shoulder and danced all the way down the hall. At the end of the hall, she suddenly stopped and decided to pretend she was the lead princess in the ballet and was about to make her grand entrance onto the stage. She stood up straight and made her neck very long, and then she gracefully glided into the kitchen with her toes pointing every step of the way. Randi spun around and gave her Mom a great big hug as she exclaimed, "Today is the first day of becoming a real ballerina!" "Yes, it is!" said her Mother. Randi tried her best not to squirm with excitement as her Mother put her hair up in a ballet bun as she sipped her healthy breakfast smoothie. It was time to go, she did not want to be late on her first day of class. Randi beamed with excitement as she picked up her dance bag and happily danced out the back door.
